How do you charge ?

a client came in to see the new lawyer.
“could you please tell me how you charge”, asked the client.
“of course”, replied the lawyer; “my system is very simple: I charge 10,000.00 $ to answer three questions”.
“that is rather expensive, is’nt it ?” said the client.
“that’s right”, answered the lawyer, “and what is your third question ?”
